Foreword . . .

Night and day, winter and summer, each of us plays a part in Life's eternal drama. In the pages of this book we, the 1955 DOE-WAH-JACK staff, seek to unfold the record of one year of this drama at Williams High School—a year of work and play to be kept for all time in the memory of Williams' High students. . . . Here is your student ticket. We sincerely hope you will enjoy this, your 1954-'55 year of drama.

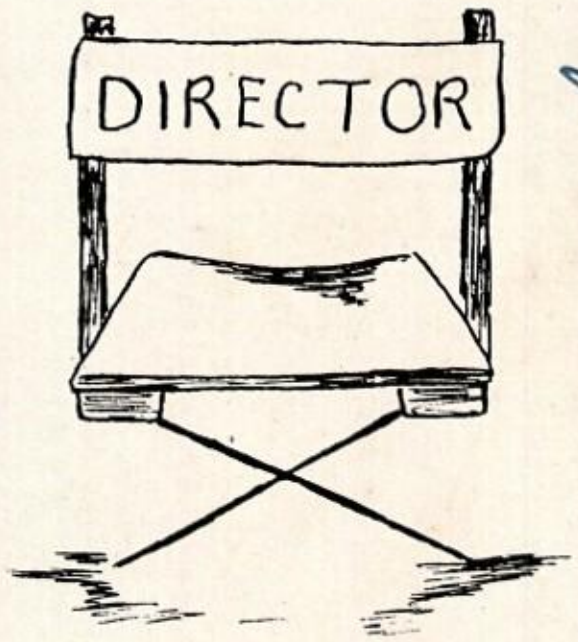
"Madame" Hunter

She has achieved success who has lived well, laughed often, and loved much; who has gained the respect of intelligent men and the love of little children; who has always looked for the best in others; given the best she had; and who has accomplished her task. To one whose life is an inspiration—we lovingly dedicate this, our 1955 Doe-Wah-Jack, to Mrs. J. Allen Hunter.

Produced and Directed by . . .

The many administration problems of our large and complex high school are ably directed by our principal, Mr. Linnemann. With his ability to foresee and control them, we have completed a perfect year of drama.



Our year of drama is produced by the Board of Education, who through tireless efforts keep our school running smoothly. This board is composed of: T. H. Traynham, Mrs. A. T. Glenn, J. D. Strader, Dr. H. V. Murray, W. L. Shoffner, Walter M. Williams, Dr. L. E. Spikes. (Not pictured is C. M. Euliss.)

Our Administration Staff, also a producer, helps us to maintain an ideal school through efficient management. These guiding members are:

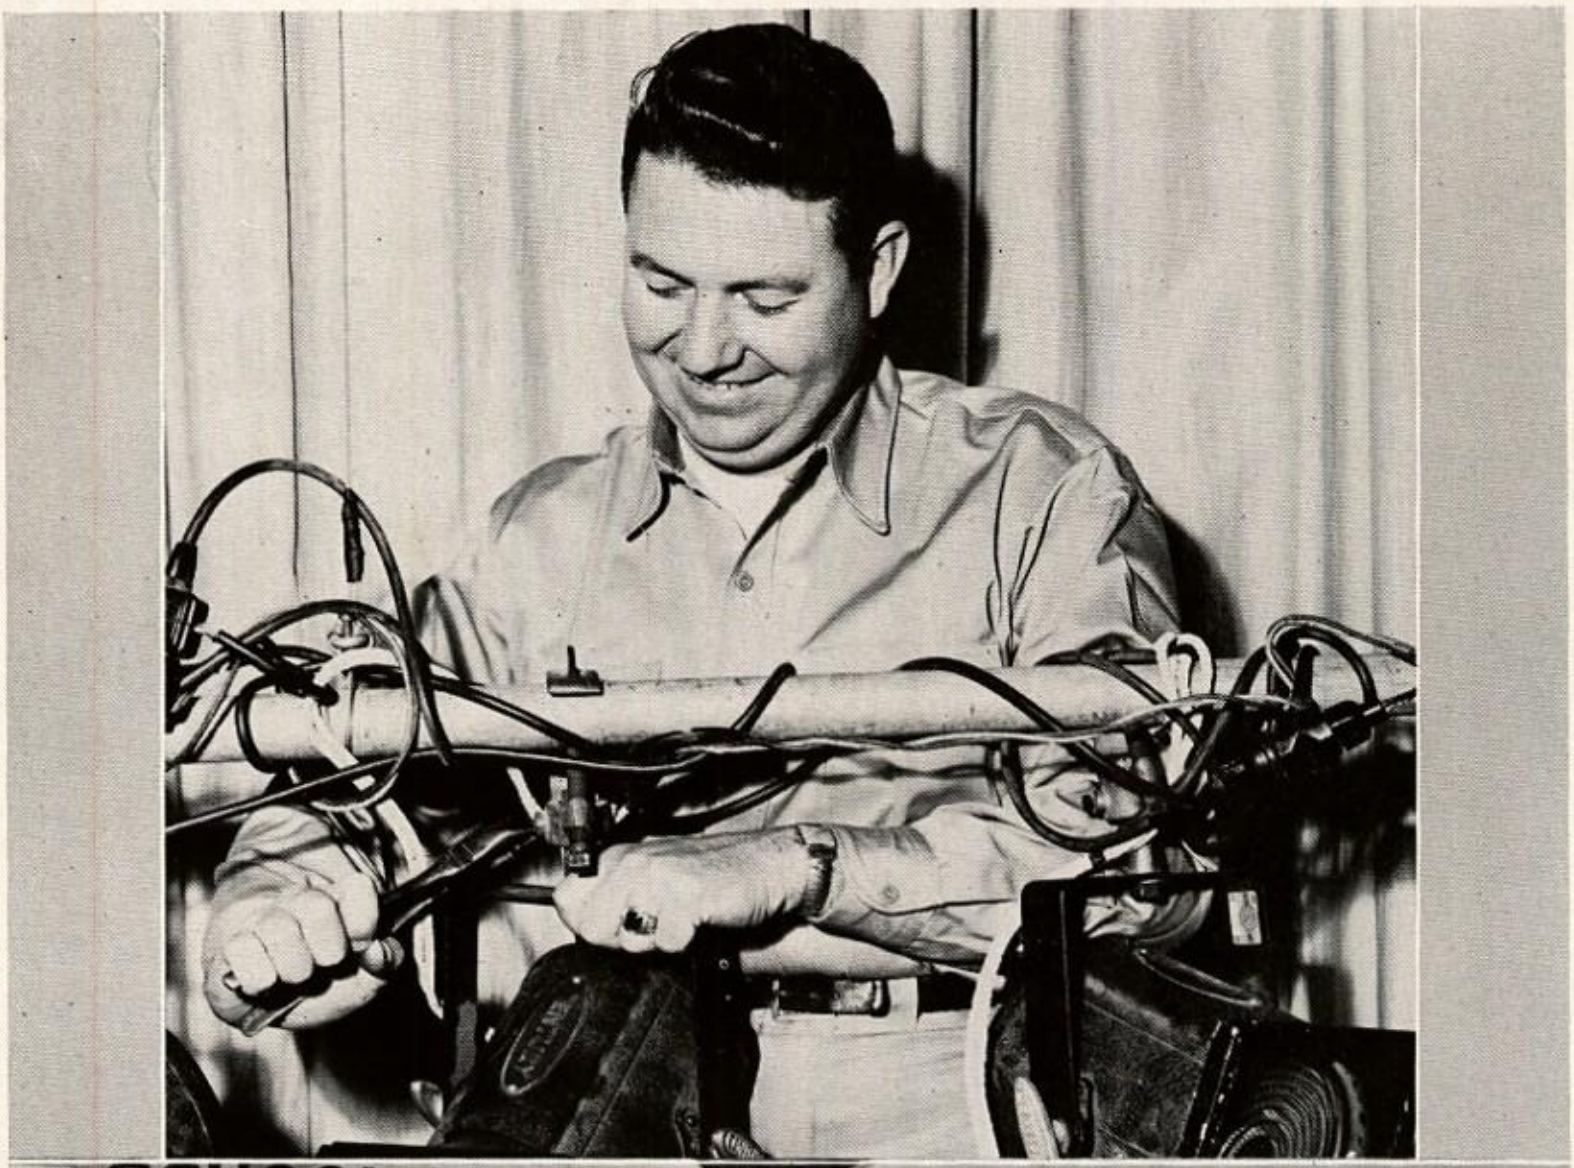
Stage Hands

No words can express our gratitude to Mr. Sam Yarborough whose readiness to help never ceases. He is always found keeping our props in perfect condition.



These efficient boys supply part of our cast with transportation to and from our theatre. They are always there on time unless the bus is unavoidably detained.

MASCOTS

Thurla Moore and Phillip Blythe, our 1954-55 mascots, were elected by the Senior Class. They will truly highlight the various Senior activities. The Junior-Senior Prom, Senior Class Day and picnic will find them on hand to add a touch of charm to these occasions.

"Midsummer Night's Dream"

"Moonlight and Roses" was the theme for the last year's prom, the biggest success ever.

Reigning over Homecoming festivities this year were Barbara Miles, Queen, and Jerry Long, King.

We owe a vote of thanks to the maids and janitors who are continually striving to keep our building clean and orderly. Doing a good job are:

Every day the students look forward to eating lunch in our spacious cafeteria. Mrs. Howerton, our cafeteria manager, is responsible for the attractive and nourishing menus.

"When Ladies Meet"

Williams High is very fortunate to have one of the finest Home Economics Departments in the South and perhaps in the entire country. Sewing, cooking, first aid, and good grooming are included in the courses. At Christmas, always a merry season, the Home Ec. Department is transformed into a fairyland.

Due to the efforts of the three faculty members, Mrs. Pope, Mrs. Rouse, and Miss Brannock, a third year of work is now offered.

This past year the Bulldogs did not enjoy their best season. Over-all, Coach Stan Huffman's eleven won three games and lost six. This was due to the fact that the Bulldogs were short on man power, and injuries hurt the club.

Mike Cammack, who played brilliant ball all season, was selected to the All-Conference and All-State football teams.

Several other boys showed sparks of fine play. Co-Captain Gail Elliott made three long touchdown runs in one game. Holmes Harden, Bobby Garrison, and Dexter Smith also gained a lot of yardage. The entire line gave a good account of themselves during most of the games. Bobby Sykes and "Toots" Fowler are underclassmen who came through better than expected. These two boys are expected to lead the forward wall of next year's teams.

Glory?"

Lots of Luck to a swell Boy and all that kind of Rot.

"What Price Glory?"

Dear George,

We have really had a long up time in Bible class haven't we. Well George another year is almost over and next year I hope that we can see each other.

You are one of the nicest and jillist people I've ever met. Keep up the good work and you will go far in life.

Best wishes forever.
